

Donna K Woolam

Author | Speaker | Jesus Lover

"Your life is not a project to be managed; it is a call to experience the wholeness He died for."

Donna Woolam is an author and speaker who found her voice on a porch in Amarillo, Texas. She helps women move beyond the exhaustion of "managing" their lives to take hold of their God-breathed identity. By bridging brain science with the Authority of Scripture, Donna invites audiences into the wholeness Jesus already died for.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

His Hostage Heart: The Unrelenting Pursuit

Encounter a love so driven that reason and logic disappear. Trading "beggar's robes" for the tangible touch of a Savior, Donna shares her journey of near-death and restoration to show that His story is your story, too.

The Architecture of Renewal

Move beyond "willpower" and into the practical promise of Romans 12:2. Explore the intersection of brain science and the Authority of the Word to identify invisible beliefs and align your thoughts with a finished work.

The Daily Rhythm: Signals vs. Sirens

A high-impact session (perfect for breakouts) providing the practical footing for a renewed mind. Learn to treat emotions as signals rather than sirens and view your past as a catapult rather than an anchor,

Booking & Contact

DonnaWoolam.com/Speaking | Donna@DonnaWoolam.com | Waco, TX